

finebrain – powering the intelligent enterprise

finebrain AG, Basel / Switzerland

- ❖ founded in 2000 by Thomas Morscher and Alex Hatebur
- ❖ owner-managed, 6 employees, annual revenue appr. USD 2 M
- ❖ Specialized in software solutions for intelligent knowledge access and expertise location

Products

- ❖ finebrain™ TaxonomyEngine (U.S. Patent 7,788,265), the core technology driving the flagship products:
 - ❖ finebrain™ ExpertFinder – a “knowledge LinkedIn” for companies – networking all experts of an organization
 - ❖ finebrain™ Enterprise ClusterSearch, searching and structuring all of a company’s scattered data sources.

Customers

- ❖ internationally operating, decentralized companies such as BASF, B. Braun, Pfizer, PricewaterhouseCoopers, Roche.

PRICEWATERHOUSECOOPERS

“The PwC ExpertFinder is an extraordinary success. It enables people putting together teams for a specific mandate and to rapidly find the right specialists for the job.”

<http://www.finebrain.com/en/expertfinder/>

 “The ClusterSearch is an unprecedented and powerful research tool. Once more Bravo!”

Dr. med. German Gallucci
Director, Harvard School of Dental Medicine

<http://newface.finebrain.com/video>

Thriving on Megatrends

- ❖ Enterprise 3.0:
 - ❖ Aggregation of multiple content types and sources
 - ❖ Semantic-enabled search & knowledge access
- ❖ Expert-focused Social Networking
- ❖ Visualization of information for Business Intelligence

